Salò - elegance & joie de vivre on Lake Garda

Located on the sunny south-west coast of Lake Garda, Salò is a place full of character, charm and history. The small town is one of the most exclusive destinations in the region and combines a Mediterranean lifestyle with an aristocratic past - nestled in a sheltered bay, surrounded by the gentle hills of the Riviera dei Limoni.

The historic old town of Salò invites you to stroll through its well-kept alleyways, magnificent villas and elegant palazzi. On the longest lakeside promenade on Lake Garda, visitors can enjoy the impressive panorama of the lake - ideal for an aperitif at sunset, a relaxing stroll or a visit to one of the many boutiques, cafés and restaurants.

Salò has a rich cultural offering: the imposing domicile of Santa Maria Annunziata, elegant galleries, museums and open-air concerts are evidence of the lively cultural scene. At the same time, the town is deeply rooted in its history - Salò was once the seat of the government of the Italian Social Republic under Mussolini, today the town stands for peacefulness, enjoyment and the highest quality of life.

Thanks to its central location on the western shore, Salò is also an ideal starting point for excursions into nature, hikes in the nearby mountains, bike tours through olive groves or boat trips to other lake towns. The surrounding area attracts visitors with its wineries, lemon orchards and excellent regional cuisine, which delights with high-quality products and tradition.

Salò combines stylish living with authentic flair - a place where you can lose track of time and find yourself at the same time. Salò is the ideal place to live or retreat to for anyone looking for something special but who still wants to be close to urban life.
