ABOUT THE AREA

Mahmutlar, located on the stunning Turkish Riviera, is a rapidly developing coastal district that offers a perfect blend of modern living and natural beauty. As a neighborhood of Alanya in the Antalya province, it has grown from a quiet village into a vibrant, international community. The area is defined by its long stretch of sandy and pebbled beaches, framed by the picturesque Taurus Mountains to the north. This unique topography provides residents and visitors with a wide range of activities, from sunbathing and water sports on the Mediterranean to hiking and exploring the ancient ruins nestled in the hills. Mahmutlar boasts a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, making it a popular choice for both tourists seeking a peaceful holiday and expats looking for a permanent home with a low cost of living.

The lifestyle in Mahmutlar is one of comfort and convenience. The town has a well-developed infrastructure with a variety of amenities to cater to daily needs. Residents can enjoy easy access to local shops, supermarkets, restaurants, and cafes, as well as a lively weekly street market where they can find fresh produce and local goods. The streets are wide and well-maintained, and public transport in the form of frequent 'dolmus' minibuses makes it easy to travel to the bustling city center of Alanya, which is just a short 10-kilometer journey away. The promenade that stretches along the coastline is perfect for leisurely strolls or bike rides, offering breathtaking views of the sea and the historic Alanya Castle.

Beyond the immediate comforts of the town, Mahmutlar is an excellent base for exploring the rich history and natural wonders of the region. Just a short drive away are significant historical sites like the ruins of the ancient Roman city of Syedra and the captivating Dim Cave. For nature lovers, the area offers adventure at every turn, with opportunities for jeep safaris through the rugged terrain, exploring the tranquil Dim River, and visiting the stunning Sapadere Canyon with its cascading waterfalls. This blend of accessibility and adventure ensures that there is always something new to discover, catering to a diverse range of interests.

For those traveling to and from Mahmutlar, the nearest and most convenient airport is Gazipaşa-Alanya Airport (GZP). Located approximately 28 kilometers from Mahmutlar, it offers a quick and easy transfer, typically taking about 30 minutes by car or taxi. While Antalya International Airport (AYT) is a larger and more popular hub, it is significantly further away, with a drive to Mahmutlar taking around two to two and a half hours. Therefore, GZP is the preferred choice for most visitors and residents due to its proximity, ensuring a smoother and faster start to their time in this beautiful coastal retreat.
