Ravda is a resort village on the Bulgarian Black Sea coast, known for its ecologically clean beaches with fine golden sand, as well as a calm sea with a gentle entrance. The village is popular among young people and families with children due to its well-developed sports infrastructure, opportunities for water sports and affordable prices compared to neighboring resorts. The proximity to historic Nessebar and Sunny Beach allows you to combine beach holidays with cultural and entertainment programs.

The geographical location is located 5 km from Nessebar and Sunny Beach, 30 km from Burgas Airport.

Beaches and the sea

Ecologically clean beaches with fine golden sand.

The sea is calm, with a gentle slope, ideal for children.

The beaches are equipped with umbrellas, deck chairs and lifeguard towers.

Placement

A wide range of accommodation options: from family hotels and guest houses to private apartments and villas.

Entertainment and sports

Extensive opportunities for water sports such as windsurfing, water skiing and rowing.

Nightclubs and discos attract young people.

A lunapark with attractions and carousels for children.

Infrastructure

There are many restaurants, eateries and shops in the village.

There are medical centers, a post office and a library.
