Four Winds is a Palladian-style estate located on one of the most sought-after west coast beaches in Barbados. It was designed by renowned architect Larry Warren and boasts an impressive 380 sq. ft. of beach frontage on Gibbs Beach. The estate's arrival experience is regal, with a sweeping coral stone driveway leading to the foyer. The main house is designed in a traditional Barbadian style and features a grandeur that is immediately apparent upon entering with a striking double staircase and a grand living space punctuated by a grand piano. This breathtaking space seamlessly transitions to a sweeping wrap-around terrace, enveloping guests in manicured gardens that gracefully cascade towards the Caribbean Sea. The estate covers 2.5 acres and offers 6 uniquely styled ensuite bedrooms, each a sanctuary of refined comfort. The charming cottage offers an additional 4 exquisitely appointed ensuites, thoughtfully designed to capture the mesmerizing interplay of the pool's glistening allure and the ever-entrancing sea views. The outdoor dining area, with intricate wall carvings and details, presents a haven for culinary indulgence amidst the enchanting natural surroundings. The estate's entertainment possibilities are conveniently weaved throughout the property, with a cocktail lounge designed with comfort in mind to invite moments of relaxation, a vibrant billiards room presenting opportunities for friendly rivalry, a tennis court standing ready for spirited matches, and a private gym offering the perfect haven for wellness and rejuvenation. The estate's extensive 380 ft of beach frontage provides an unparalleled connection to the Caribbean's azure waters, where the sands meet the sea in perfect harmony. The serene setting epitomises the pinnacle of coastal luxury living.
