Grottammare is a charming coastal town on the Adriatic coast in the Marche region, known for its long sandy beaches, elegant promenade and mild Mediterranean climate. The historic old town, "Borgo Alto", is perched on a hill and impresses with its narrow streets, historic buildings and breathtaking panoramic views over the sea.

The town combines culture, leisure and gastronomy: restaurants, cafés, boutiques and local markets offer the typical Italian lifestyle. Grottammare is ideal for anyone who wants to enjoy the relaxed coastal life without having to sacrifice good infrastructure and connections to larger towns such as San Benedetto del Tronto or Fermo.

We generally recommend having the building law situation checked by a specialist lawyer. All details are based exclusively on information provided to us by clients.
