Charming historical property with a full approved project ready to go, for a spacious 3 bedrooms, 3-bathrooms corner townhouse with 187,10m<sup>2</sup>, a basement with 163m<sup>3</sup> extra versatile rooms are and a large outdoor entertaining space with pool and terraces and double carport. It sits on a fenced in 908 sqm plot only 5 minutes drive from Armação de Pera and beautiful sandy beaches and walking distance to all main amenities shops restaurants, etc. Faro Airport can be reached in about 30 min approximately.

This project in the heart of Alcantarilha is ideal for those who love architecture and value the antique combine with the modern comfort all together in one place. You can add your own ideas, input and decide how your new home in the Algarve will be like. The plans for a property were done with love and care to all details with open plan living dining room leading also to the terrace facing your outdoor terraces, garden and pool area, separate kitchen and pantry room, 3 bedrooms (2 en-suite), 1 guest toilet and on the separate basement was planned to find a very large extra versatile space rooms that could be used at your taste like for example a laundry room, a wine cellar, a games room or and a gym room open to your imagination and preferences.

The outdoor spaces were also planned and carefully designed to be a small oasis in the village still maintaining a low maintenance natural garden featuring various areas for leisure and parking options discretely and designed with attention to the needs.

Additional features in this property include approved planning ready to go and the new owner the opportunity to build his dream home with all the modern amenities needed our days in an historical building and historical area in the central Algarve.
