At the heart of the history of Douvres-la-Delivrande, we invite you to immerse yourself in the timeless elegance of this magnificent 17th-century manor house, ideally located in the heart of the charming town of Douvres-la-Delivrande, just minutes from the D-Day landing beaches and Caen. This exceptional property, steeped in history and perfectly maintained, offers a unique living environment combining authenticity and modern comfort.

Behind its high walls, the manor house reveals a generous surface area of 400m2 with its reception rooms, fireplace, and old parquet floors.

The estate includes:

- A main house of character, bathed in light, offering real living on one level as well as 4 bedrooms upstairs.
- An outbuilding with two apartments currently rented.
- A wooded park of several thousand square meters, very nicely landscaped.

This rare property will delight lovers of heritage, nature and tranquility, while being close to all amenities (schools, shops, transport?).

The department of Calvados is possibly the most famous of the three departments in Lower Normandy, the other two being Manche and Orne. The inhabitants are called the Calvadosiens and it is located in the north east of the region.

Calvados gathers many different cultural and geographical areas in one spot, there are 4 main areas: in the west of the department we find the Bessin area, mainly around Bayeux; in the south west there is the "Swiss Normande" area, a hilly land with rivers; in the centre of the department we find Caen with flat agricultural land; the Auge area stands out in the east of the department as the typical Normandy image with its half-timbered houses.

Calvados appeals to most for its many beautiful landscapes and beaches including the WWII landing beaches.
