Entering the property through a pedestrian gate, you step onto the front terrace, an ideal space for seating or outdoor dining. From here, the main door leads into a cosy living room, creating a welcoming first impression.

From the living room, a hallway provides access to the rest of the property. Directly ahead is the bathroom, fitted with W/C, wash basin, and shower.

To the right of the bathroom is the main bedroom, also featuring a walk-in wardrobe, offering excellent storage space. At the end of the hallway, to the right, is the spacious kitchen and dining room, providing ample room for family dining and everyday living. From the kitchen, a door leads out to a second private terrace, which also offers off-road parking space and a useful storage shed.

This bungalow offers a practical layout with generous indoor and outdoor space, suitable for both permanent living and holiday use.
