ABOUT THE AREA

Barberino Tavarnelle is a comune in the Metropolitan City of Florence in the Italian region Tuscany, located about 25 kilometres south of Florence. The town's historic center is a maze of narrow, winding streets lined with medieval buildings and ancient churches. Visitors can explore the impressive fortress, admire the beautiful frescoes in the local churches, or simply wander through the picturesque streets and soak up the atmosphere.

One of the main attractions of Barberino Val d'Elsa is its proximity to the Chianti region. The surrounding hills are dotted with vineyards, producing some of Italy's finest wines. Wine enthusiasts can embark on wine tours, visit local wineries, and sample the region's renowned Chianti Classico.
