City area

Kreuzberg is a central and multicultural district, linked to Friedrichshain by the famous bridge Oberbaumbrücke, listed as a historical monument. Behind the Spree, the Wrangelkiez is a trendy area with many bars and restaurants. To the south of Kreuzberg, the Bergmankiez is a lively district with many shopping streets. There is a large covered market, the Marheineke Markthalle. Viktoriapark, perched on a hill, offers a panoramic view of Berlin. For culture buffs, the Hebbel Am Ufer offers a rich program of contemporary dance and theatre. Several companies, such as Deliveroo, were seduced by the dynamism of Kreuzberg and installed their headquarters. Many old buildings, recently renovated, attract investors from around the world and increased the standing of this neighbourhood.
