ZADAR, BILI BRIG - Building land under UPU - 834m²

Building land for sale in Zadar, Bili Brig district, with a total area of 834 m². The plot is located within the construction area and is covered by the Urban Development Plan (UPU).

The land is of regular shape, measuring approximately 20 x 42 meters, which makes it very suitable for the future construction of a family house or investment project.

According to the current spatial plan, the land is intended for construction, however, at this time it is not possible to immediately obtain a building permit, but certain conditions must be met in accordance with the UPU (infrastructure development and area development).

The location offers excellent potential due to the proximity of all amenities and represents a long-term investment in an increasingly sought-after part of Zadar.
