Descripción:

Pelješac, Viganj, a semi-detached stone house on two floors with a floor area of 58m², opposite which are two ruins of 61m² and 36m², a forest of 58m² and a passage of 11m².

Above the house is another ruin of 14m².

The current situation is that we have a house with a living area of 116m², and the rest is a garden of 166m².

The two-story stone house is connected to electricity and water, does not have a septic tank, and the ruins, which are registered as buildings in the title deed, can be reconstructed into additional residential buildings or used as a garden. The 14m² ruin, which is not part of the complex, is ideal as a storage room (approx. 30m away).

They are located in a quiet environment, 500m from the sea and beach and basic amenities, and a few minutes drive from Orebić with all the necessary amenities.

Viganj, like Orebić, is known for its old captain's houses, and the channel between Pelješac and Korčula is a paradise for surfers.

With the construction of the Pelješac Bridge, Pelješac, like Korčula, has gained faster and simpler transport connections and is becoming increasingly attractive.
