Descripción:

Located in the charming town of Bazouges-la-Pérouse (35560), this 1850 stone building offers a picturesque and authentic setting. A town steeped in history, Bazouges-la-Pérouse is renowned for its preserved heritage and tranquility, offering a unique living environment. Close to local shops and tourist attractions, this town enjoys a pleasant environment for residents seeking authenticity and serenity.

This imposing three-story stone building with a living area of 285 m² (2,850 sq ft) sits on a 219 m² (2,300 sq ft) plot in Bazouges-la-Pérouse. Featuring a south-facing terrace, it combines character and modernity. The roof and some of the woodwork have recently been renovated; the interior is still in need of renovation. With its generous spaces and potential for conversion, this building is an ideal opportunity for a restaurant project with guest rooms or as an investment in an authentic and preserved setting.
