Descripción:

This property stands out for its remarkable potential for those wishing to create a truly personalised residence. It retains the rustic charm and authenticity of the regions traditional architecture, providing the ideal foundation for a unique reconstruction and modernisation project.

With breathtaking views over the countryside and extensive citrus groves stretching as far as the eye can see, the setting offers absolute tranquillity in perfect harmony with nature. The courtyard invites the creation of a charming garden, while the presence of a water cistern and an old oven enhances the rural and welcoming character of this distinctive space.

The interior is spacious and versatile, offering multiple possibilities for adapting it to a modern lifestyle without losing its authenticity. It features two independent entrances, each facing a different street, allowing for various layout and usage options. Its excellent south and west orientation ensures abundant natural light throughout the day.

The proximity to the picturesque village of Alte and essential amenities, such as minimarkets, restaurants, cafés and an interesting cultural offering, makes this property a particularly attractive investment opportunity, whether for a permanent residence, holiday home or local accommodation project. - REF: 1009-2419
