Descripción:

This prestigious 18th-century Tuscan estate, home to an accommodation facility with a farm, is for sale on Elba Island. Immersed in the most unspoiled nature, just a minute walk from the beach, this property consists of a beautiful, completely renovated 18th-century villa with a big heated swimming pool and a wellness area surrounded by woods. The property has six elegant independent suites, obtained from wooden and glass buildings, with ceilings embellished with exposed wooden beams and precious period furniture, each boasting its own spa area with a jacuzzi and a relaxation area for exclusive use in the forest. To complete the offer, there is also a renowned restaurant and a wooden clubhouse with sofas and armchairs. In the five hectares of grounds that frame this magnificent property, one hectare houses 400 olive trees and large space is dedicated to the cultivation of fruit and vegetables. This is a paradise of unparalleled natural beauty, in which to appreciate the silence of the sea in the fascinating landscape of Elba Island.
