Descripción:

Located in a peaceful village just a few minutes from Mansle, this charming stone house has retained all of its character and authentic appeal. Set on approximately 900 m2 of enclosed grounds beside a picturesque stream, the property offers a delightful lifestyle and includes a successful self-contained holiday cottage (gite), providing an excellent source of rental income with annual occupancy between 70-80%.

The main house showcases the charm of traditional French country living, with exposed beams and stone walls throughout. The independent gite features an open-plan living area with a fitted kitchen and wood-burning stove, a separate lounge, a shower room, and a first-floor bedroom, making it ideal for holiday lets.

A 60 m2 attached barn with electricity provides space for a motorhome or offers excellent potential to extend the main house. The enclosed garden, complete with a covered well and bordered by a small stream, perfectly complements this authentic property, making it ideal as a family home with a tourism business.
