ABOUT THE AREA

Peyia (also spelt Pegeia) is located 14km north of Paphos Town and sits on the steep slopes of the coastal hills inland from Coral Bay at the southern end of the Akamas Peninsula. This is home to many non-Cypriot residents and due to the size of this popular village you will find most conveniences are catered for. As the largest village in Paphos bordering Kathikas, Akoursos, Kissonerga and the Akamas Peninsular there is plenty to do here including swimming at the renowned Blue Flag awarded Coral Bay Beach.

Set on the gentle sloping hills above the Coral Bay resort, Peyia is an unusual mix of old traditional buildings and way of life with a good sprinkling of incomers who have encouraged some development in the village - particularly influencing the vast choice of food available.

Peyia mixes traditional old with the new build; a growing number of new restaurants and takeaways - and wonderful old Cypriot building which are littered around the imposing Church at the centre of the village. Tourists can walk around the Peyia village centre and see the old watering station which is now part of the pretty gardens in which holidaymakers can sit a while and enjoy the shade of weeping willows and tall Oleander.
