This charming two bedroom townhouse is located in the desirable Chloraka, within a modern development renowned for its quality design and prime location near Paphos town, local amenities, and the coastline. Chloraka offers a relaxed Mediterranean lifestyle, combining tranquility with convenience and easy access to shops, restaurants, schools, and beautiful beaches.

The townhouse is part of a thoughtfully designed development comprising two contemporary blocks.

Block 1 features ten spacious apartments, including six three-bedroom and four two-bedroom units, many with sweeping views of the sparkling Paphos coastline. Block 2 offers eight attractive townhouses, evenly divided between two-bedroom and three-bedroom homes, perfect for families or those seeking extra space.

The ground floor offers a bright open-plan living and dining area, complemented by a separate kitchen. A convenient guest toilet completes this level. From both the kitchen and living area, verandas provide seamless indoor-outdoor living, ideal for relaxation or alfresco entertaining.

Upstairs, it features two bedrooms, including a master with an en-suite shower, while the remaining bedroom shares a modern shower room.

Additional practical features include a covered parking space, and the property enjoys views over landscaped areas and towards the sea. Combining elegant design, functional layout, and a prime location within the complex, this three-bedroom maisonette is ideal for family living, holiday retreats, or investment.
