Descripción:

Spacious interiors with endless floor-to-ceiling glass walls open to the terrace and create a perfectly natural flow from the impeccable interiors to the lush alfresco landscape. In a perfect climate like this, this style of indoor/outdoor living is a must! The airy open concept layout of L2 Residence in Ko Samui allows guests to enjoy one another's company, whether brewing their morning coffee or lounging in the living room. The kitchen of gourmet quality is outfitted with a tremendous island and high-end stainless appliances to make it a chef's dream, of which is easily accessible the casually elegant formal dining that opens to the breezes from two sides. The floor plan's sweeping layout merges these amenities with lush lawns that spread out from the house to encompass stately boulders, a waterfall plunge pool and stone pathways that cut through the garden's mature trees and vegetation for a spirit of true bliss. Built into a lush hillside, L2 Residence brilliantly incorporates the natural hillside into its contemporary architecture through exposed stone and boulders, while casting its dimensions out to the vast sea via numerous terraces and sun decks of varying heights. Alongside this rich variety of indoor/outdoor destinations are the three ensuite bedrooms with private balconies as an ideal retreat for reflection and privacy.
