ABOUT THE AREA

Gravesend is a town in northwest Kent, England, situated 21 miles east-southeast of Charing Cross on the south bank of the River Thames and opposite Tilbury in Essex. Located in the diocese of Rochester, it is the administrative centre of the Borough of Gravesham.

The maritime town of Gravesend is an ideal place for a day out. The borough of Gravesham has the riverside, countryside, historic villages, picturesque parishes and a full calendar of events for you to enjoy. All this and it's only 24 minutes from London and has great links from Ebbsfleet to Europe. So come and visit Gravesend!

With everything from martial arts, tennis, pond dipping, nature trails, basketball and more, there is something for all ages.

Don't forget our FREE Parklife events at Gordon Promenade, Higham Recreation Ground, Cascades Leisure Centre and Camer Park. Activities on these days include climbing wall, bouncy castle, magician and more.

Kent is a county in southeastern England. In the city of Canterbury, Canterbury Cathedral has a 1,400-year history, and features a Romanesque crypt and medieval stained glass. The underground Canterbury Roman Museum has excavated mosaics. Whitstable, to the north, is a coastal town with colourful cottages and a harbourside fish market. East, along the coast, Margate is home to the Turner Contemporary art gallery.
