Property Details

With its glorious natural scenery, warm climate, welcoming culture and low cost of living, The United Kingdom is quickly gaining a reputation as one of the most desirable places across the world to live or visit. On offer here is a chance to make a smart financial investment into this magnificent part of the world.

A spacious and well designed country bungalow with large rooms. Set in mature gardens extending to approximately 0.65 acre.

Situated in the South Devon countryside approximately 2 miles from the busy small town of Chudleigh and approximately 9 miles South of the Cathedral City of Exeter. The Willows is set in delightful garden comprising mature trees, an ornamental koi carp pond, a poultry enclosure with hen house.

The view from The Willows is outstandingly uninterrupted, looking towards Haytor, Dartmoor National Park. Chudleigh is ideally situated within easy reach of the coast of Teignmouth and Torbay.

The A38, which by-passes the town, gives access to the cities of Plymouth and Exeter and the motorway system. The market town of Newton Abbot is just over 5 miles away.

ABOUT THE AREA

Newton Abbot is a historic market town in the South of Devon surrounded by glorious countryside. The town is home to a large range of shops and is a great base for anyone who wants to explore both the Dartmoor National Park and a number of lively seaside towns.

If you like shopping Newton Abbot is a great place to visit, there are a number of markets held throughout the week and a historic indoor Pannier Market which is open for people to shop and browse. The town centre is also home to a variety of shops, both independent retailers and high street names. There is also a produce market which will give you the chance to sample some of the locally made and grown foods. You'll find a great number of pubs and restaurants serving locally sourced food and drink, as well as providing a charm you won't find anywhere else.

There are a number of nearby attractions, including Trago Mills and the Newton Abbot Racecourse which holds a number of races through the summer.

Devon is a county in southwest England. It encompasses sandy beaches, fossil cliffs, medieval towns and moorland national parks. The English Riviera is a series of picturesque, south-coast harbour towns including Torquay, Paignton and Brixham. The South West Coast Path follows the coastline, taking in the towering cliffs of the northern Exmoor Coast and rock formations on the fossil-rich southern Jurassic Coast.

Whether it's a family holiday, romantic getaway or a break with friends, if you're looking for a place to unwind or get your pulse racing, want beautiful landscape, fantastic things to do, attractions, events and amazing food at your finger tips, Devon is the perfect destination.

With unspoilt coast and countryside all around, the landscape of South Devon is the perfect backdrop for a relaxing escape. Take a stroll around some of the many historical sites scattered across the region or relax and watch the world go by and enjoy the views, sample some wonderful fresh local food or be pampered at a luxury spa, spot wildlife in one of the many nature reserves or spend an afternoon shopping, your break to South Devon doesn't have to be stressful.

With 3 Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty, a World Heritage Coast, a National Park, over 125 miles of stunning coastline, acres of unspoilt countryside, two vibrant cities and an amazing mixture of coastal and rural towns and villages, South Devon encompasses the very best the country has to offer.
