The highway is a short drive away making nearby villages and the larger towns of Limassol and Paphos easily accessible. Arsos is particularly well suited to those who appreciate a peaceful village life, away from the hustle and bustle of the larger cities.

Set in its own secluded large plot, amongst beautiful surroundings, everything about this 3 bedroom villa says idyllic village hideaway. incorporating many traditional Cypriot building elements, the property blends seamlessly with its environment and the end result is truly stunning and unique. Despite the more traditional feel of the property, all of the modern day conveniences have been considered including air conditioning, central heating, double glazing and a solar energy system.

The ground floor comprises an open plan living, dining and kitchen area, an en suite bedroom and a guest toilet. Patio doors feature in multiple locations allowing access to the garden. The option to add a storage room is also available.

The two additional bedrooms with ensuite facilities can be found upstairs. A curved veranda at this level overlooks the garden and the beautiful scenery.

The outside of the villa is absolutely sublime, with an interesting mix of lush greenery, beautiful flowers, paved terraces and raised covered verandas. A swimming pool sits in the centre with ample space around the outside for sunbathing.
