Property Description

Ichkabal Residences in Bacalar

Nestled beside the mesmerizing Bacalar Lagoon often termed the Lagoon of Seven Colors for its spellbinding palette of blues and greens Ichkabal is a haven for those seeking a tranquil escape. Bacalar a quaint town located in the southern tip of Quintana Roo Mexico is adorned with captivating cenotes and boasts a plethora of aquatic adventures including swimming snorkeling paddleboarding and delightful boat excursions.

Adding to the allure is the impending completion of the Tren Maya an ambitious railway infrastructure spanning 1 525 kilometers. By 2024 it promises to connect Quintana Roo to notable destinations like Tulum Cancun Palenque and Chichen Itza.

Close to Bacalar the ancient Mayan city of Ichkabal waits to be explored. Discovered in 1995 and surrounded by dense jungle its monumental structures have remained a secret treasure offering a glimpse into a world older than Chichen Itza and Uxmal.

Ichkabal Villas

Within this pristine environment Ichkabal Villas have been meticulously planned. 36 artisanal villas spread across 20 000 square meters with sizes ranging from 102 to 145 square meters each. The villas occupy only 20% of the total land underscoring a commitment to preserving the lush surroundings.
