Description:

Where the Forest Meets the Sea - ALDEIA DO PINHAL VILLAS is a new residential development featuring architecturally designed modern villas. Homes crafted to embrace the benefits of their prime location in one of Portugal's most iconic coastlines, in the heart of the Silver Coast.

The villas' location next to Salir do Porto Beach pays homage to the Portuguese people's deep connection to coastal pine forests, in villages where cherished family traditions have taken place under the shade of maritime pines for centuries. From walks in nature to picnics, picking pine cones and white berries called "camarinhas", witnessing children's games or harvesting moss for Christmas nativity scenes.

Aldeia do Pinhal celebrates this rich heritage, honouring the bond between nature, forest, community, and the coastal environment, providing a unique living experience.

Imagine opening your window to the scent of pine and the gentle call of ocean waves, surrounded by lush greenery and unspoilt nature. Enjoy hiking trails along the coast all year round and marvel at Portugal's highest dunes every time you walk to the beach.

With São Martinho do Porto Bay just down the road, Aldeia do Pinhal is a peaceful retreat from the bustle of everyday life. Here, every moment is an opportunity to be part of an authentic Portuguese lifestyle, filled with the soothing smells, sights and sounds of the sea and forest.

Embrace the harmony of pine and sea! Located in a tranquil area of the seaside village of Salir do Porto, this is a home to wake up to the sound of distant seagulls and golden sunlight streaming through your window.

The nearby beach, village farmers' market and cafés add to the authentic village experience. After your morning shopping and a Portuguese coffee, you can head to the beach for a dip in the calm bay waters or stretch your legs with a hike along Salir do Porto's sea-facing hills.

Discover the beautiful Chapel of Sant'Ana at the southern entrance to São Martinho do Porto Bay. Explore the historic ruins of the old Customs House on the shore of Salir do Porto beach and enjoy the vibrant local festivals. Life in Salir do Porto is a continuous celebration of Portugal's rich heritage, with so much to see and do in all seasons.

In this charming seaside village, the warmth of the community is felt in every corner. Neighbours greet each other with friendly waves as they stroll through cobblestone streets, and restaurants are filled with laughter and the rich aroma of traditional Portuguese cuisine. Life moves at a gentle pace, and the old-world charm is preserved in the daily rituals that bring people together.

ALDEIA DO PINHAL VILLAS are an extension of this wonderful lifestyle, with carefully designed layouts and modern comforts to enhance your living experience.

The layout is thoughtfully divided into two levels. The first level has a fully-equipped kitchen, open-space living and dining areas, a bedroom and a bathroom, while the second level features two suites that open onto a spacious private terrace.
