Balchik is one of the most picturesque small towns of the northern Bulgarian Black Sea coast, 40 km from the city of Varna and 180 km from Burgas. The city is located in an amphitheater and faces the sea and is protected by rocks, the largest of which is the famous Cape Kaliakra. The whole city is imbued with a romantic atmosphere and tranquility, the streets paved with white stone serve as a reminder of the ancient Roman era and the city of Dionysopolis – a fortress in the important center of medieval Bulgaria, the predecessor of the current Balchik. At one time, the charm of this city captivated the Romanian

Queen Maria, who settled here and built her summer residence "Quiet Nest".

A wonderful mild climate, warm gentle sea, clean air, extensive sandy beaches, a wide entertainment program – will help you to completely relax and unwind.
