Description:

Luxury Condos Designed for Short-Term Rental in Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Our Fort Lauderdale Project is the city's first resort condominium property, comprising 384 luxury units across 40 stories. Buyers can choose from a range of fully furnished studio to 3-bed apartments, all with two valet parking spaces per condo.

The development is the city's first resort condominium property intentionally designed for short-term rentals. This innovative approach allows owners to live in their residences year-round or rent them out nightly. It's not just a home; it's a lifestyle choice that blends residential comfort with hotel-like amenities including a pool, outdoor bar and kitchen, sundeck, co-working space, gym, spa, restaurant, entertainment lounge and 24-hour welcome desk.
