Barbat is the first place on the island of Rab that you will come across after disembarking from the ferry. Surrounded by pebble beaches, beautiful vegetation, a beautiful landscape and numerous restaurants supplied by local fishermen, you will experience the true lifestyle of one of the many Adriatic islands. The clear and crystal clear sea, pleasant temperatures and local cuisine that has been around for several generations have attracted countless guests every year who are happy to return. Barbat is a favorite destination for sailors, and for those who are more interested in the mainland, Barbat offers the possibility of excursions to the early Christian military fortress on the hill of St. Damjan. Barbat has its own holiday called "Karmenica" which is celebrated on July 16th with a rich gastronomic offer. It is connected to the town of Rab by a six-kilometer coastal promenade, ideal for morning bike rides or jogging if you are a fan of this type of sports activity.
