Description:

The location of a property is always the main premise when choosing it, when we think about the acquisition.

This apartment fits perfectly for those who are thinking of walking to the Barreiro river station and crossing the majestic Tagus to the capital Lisbon Menina e Moça.

It is a T2 with generous areas, needing your refined taste in the recovery of the kitchen, and give it the touch of a painting, recovering the aura it once had.

From one of the balconies you can observe the capital, and the night lights that brighten it and romanticize this beautiful city.

Two bedrooms, side by side, a living room, and even a support pantry, something rare nowadays, but which is so useful.

Yes, it's a third floor, but you can climb it effortlessly, and you take the opportunity to realize that the condominium is taken care of, with welcoming neighbors.
