evening sunsets are not to be missed and are equally visible from the property, which also faces West. Kappil is about half a day's drive from the tea plantations, spice gardens and Periyar Nature Reserve situated in the Eastern Ghats.

It is also a 3 hour train ride from the modern and lively city of Cochin, which is also rich in culture. There is an array of temples and mosques which add local culture. The property is secluded and relaxed but is in easy access of a wide range of places of interest.

ABOUT THE AREA

Kappil is a tourist spot in Kollam district, Kerala state, India. It is located in Edava Panchayat of Varkala Taluk at the coast of Arabian Sea. It is 18 km north of Kollam city centre. Varkala Railway Station is major railway station near Kappil.

Kerala, a state on India's tropical Malabar Coast, has nearly 600km of Arabian Sea shoreline. It's known for its palm-lined beaches and backwaters, a network of canals. Inland are the Western Ghats, mountains whose slopes support tea, coffee and spice plantations as well as wildlife. National parks like Eravikulam and Periyar, plus Wayanad and other sanctuaries, are home to elephants, langur monkeys and tigers.
