Description:

Location: Castello, Venice

The Castello district, the largest and one of the oldest in Venice, is located at the eastern end of the city. One of the most populous districts of the city has always kept intact the traditional "Venetian lifestyle." Among the numerous monuments and works of art we cannot fail to mention the Arsenale, for centuries the cradle of the power of the Serenissima, the Basilica dei SS Giovanni e Paolo, one of the most loved by the Venetians, of S. Francesco in Vigna, of S. Maria Formosa.

The property is located near Via Garibaldi, a residential area at the same time, thanks to the numerous shops nearby, but also very much in demand for investment, given the proximity to the Giardini and the pavilions of the Biennale.
