ABOUT THE AREA

Mahébourg is a small town on the south-eastern coast of the island of Mauritius. It's a great place to get a taste of real Mauritian life, where fishermen heading out on their wooden boats and lively local markets are found alongside interesting museums, local eateries and street food stalls.

Mahébourg is situated in a wonderful harbour in the Grand Port District and is only 15mins and around 10km from the International Airport. Port Louis, the capital is located 50 km and about one hour drive from Mahébourg. Mahébourg has a good bus route leading to key locations in Mauritius. You can easily get the bus to Port Louis or to other cities such as Quatre Bornes, Curepipe and can venture further across the island.

The best time to visit Mahébourg is between October and November and Late April to May, when the temperature is less humid and hot. Average temperature in summer is around 30°C and in winter, temperature can drop to 20°C.

Blue Bay

Blue bay remains true to its name by offering an amazing emerald blue water of pure beauty, a white sand beach surrounded by large casuarina trees. Blue Bay is also home to a marine park, ideal for snorkeling with an almost translucent clear water allowing you to rub shoulders with small colorful fish and abundant marine life that live among the many corals disperse in the lagoon.

Pointe d'Esny

The beach at Pointe d'Esny, with its immense lagoon moved by a light breeze, is paradise for lovers of board sports, windsurfers and kite surfers in particular,

La Cambuse

The beach of La Cambuse is a beautiful beach surrounded by abundant and unspoilt nature. The white sandy beach is beautiful with a turquoise sea surrounded by greenery and swimming is not recommended as the sea is generally rough with strong currents.

The Mahébourg Monday market

The initial focus was silks and other textiles, but these days you'll find a busy produce section, tacky bric-a-brac and steaming food stalls. It's the perfect place to try some local snacks such as gâteaux piments (chilli cakes), dhal puri (lentil pancakes) and samosas (samosas) which are usually dispensed from boxes on the backs of motorcycles. The market is open every day but doubles in size on Monday.

Bo'Valon Mall

It is located in the intersection of Blue Bay and Mahébourg arterial roads which boasts great accessibility to the mall from both directions. The mall has a spacious food court as well as 46 other shops such as Espace Maison, fashion outlets, health and beauty stores, and sports outlets, bringing a diversified retail offer.
