Description:

(The decoration and furnishing of the apartment is currently being completed.) The 3-room apartment on the first floor has been freshly renovated and offers you modern, complete furnishings and a high level of living comfort. Perfect for all those who want to live in a central and well-connected district and feel at home. The apartment has been newly furnished and equipped for renting via Wunderflats. The apartment is currently being upgraded with additional accessories and furnishings. New photos will then be taken and this advertisement updated. The apartment in Bremen Osterholz district has 2 bedrooms, a spacious living room with sofa bed, a bright bathroom with window and walk-in shower, a cozy and fully equipped kitchen, a balcony and a cellar room accessible only to the apartment. The large bedroom can sleep two people in a single bed, which can also be put together to form a double bed. The small bedroom is furnished with a single bed. Both bedrooms have a desk, a closet and the large bedroom also has a chest of drawers. The balcony is accessible from both the large bedroom and the living room. The living room is nice and bright thanks to the window front. The sofa can be converted into a sofa bed and can be used as an additional sleeping option. The sofa also offers additional storage space in the bed box. Everything you need for your daily needs is just a short distance away. Various supermarkets, specialist stores, delivery services, pharmacies, doctors, hairdressers and stores provide variety in the immediate vicinity. The apartment is centrally located and has excellent connections to public transport, major employers and important transport routes.
