Description:

A boutique development of 47 open plan contemporary town homes. Perfect as an investment or second home here on the Costa del Sol, with some units boasting beautiful sea views.

The town homes is built on two levels and upon entering at ground level, neutral tones and an open plan living and dining area.

The open plan kitchen comes fully fitted and benefits from a separate utility area.

High ceilings and porcelain floors attest to the quality of fixtures and fittings within. The living area is light, bright and airy with floor to ceiling glass doors and an interior skylight that allow natural sun light to flood in. The glass doors lead out onto a partially covered terrace and private landscaped garden where you and your family will enjoy many alfresco lunches whilst admiring the sea views.

Spacious bedrooms on the first floor come complete with fitted wardrobes and ensuite depending on the configuration chosen. The master bedroom boasts a walk-in wardrobe and an extensive wrap around terrace with double aspect windows and doors optimizing the beautiful views.
