Location

THE NORTH WEST

Recommended Beaches: Benirras ,Punta Galera, Cala Salada, Cala Gracioneta, Cala Gracio

Undoubtedly the quietest and most secluded part of the island, the north west boasts some of the most jaw-dropping scenery in Ibiza, and is very popular for yoga retreats and wellness therapists due to the abundance of natural elements and the strong island energy felt in that region.

From the north of the island there is an array of stunning beaches skirting their way around the coast, from Benirras in the North (famous for its historic hippie drumming traditions and iconic ‘God’s Finger’ rock jutting out of the sea in front of the beach), to Port to San Miguel and Cala Salada over in the west.

The endless sunsets from this side of the island can be indescribable in their beauty and each day brings a unique set of colours, and experiences for those lucky enough to witness them.

Dropping inland you will find picture perfect villages nestled in the countryside, with no more than a church and a couple of restaurants to their name, such as Santa Ines and San Mateo, surrounded by orchards of almond trees and green fields, almost as if they were frozen in time.

5 mins drive to Santa Gertrudis, 20 mins to Ibiza Town, 30 mins to the airport
