GALOVAC – Building plot 800 m² - Cleared - Asphalted access!

An attractive building plot of 800 m² is for sale in a quiet part of Galovac, perfectly positioned for the construction of a family house, villa or holiday home. The plot is of regular shape, measuring approximately 34 x 23 meters. It has already been cleared and is completely ready for construction without additional investments. A special advantage of this plot is its two-sided access – it has an entrance on two sides, and the access roads are spacious, more than six meters wide. The main entrance leads directly from the asphalt road, and the plot is located in the first row to the road. Infrastructure is available – water and electricity are in the immediate vicinity, and the plot is located in a zone where modern new buildings are emerging. It is surrounded by new houses, but still located in a quiet part of the village, without noise and traffic. Galovac is a charming Dalmatian town that has experienced strong development in recent years, thanks to the proximity of Zadar and the airport, which is only a ten-minute drive away. Galovac combines the best of both worlds – a peaceful rural environment and exceptional transport connections. More and more people are recognizing this location as an ideal location for family life or investment in tourism. Land with these characteristics – cleared, regular shape, with spacious access and asphalted entrance – rarely appears on the market.
