Description:

If you want a sunny terrace with amazing views, then this is the one for you, the house has a small patio to the front, set up a few steps off the street, shared only with one neighbour so perfect to sit out with your cuppa in the morning watching the world go by.

There is parking close to the front of the property, in the streets below and above - the house is perfectly situated on the flatter part of the old town.

Downstairs, The ground floor is open plan light and airy dining/lounge American style kitchen with plenty of space to eat at table leaving plenty of room for a cosy sitting room.

Up the marble stairs leading you to the first of the 2 bedrooms, all bedrooms have windows to the front elevation the master bedroom is a large room with high ceilings, up again to the 3rd floor with a further third bedroom, family bathroom and a large utility room to the back of the corridor all rooms are light and bright but have blinds to close on sunny days.

Upstairs again to the amazing south facing terrace and BBQ area - with the just the most amazing views. A very clean and tidy house totally ready to move straight into.
