A Privileged Location and Thoughtful Design

Tucked away up a private, two-lane concrete track road, Morning Star Manor enjoys an exclusive setting amidst a handful of large, secluded properties, ensuring unparalleled privacy. This tranquil neighborhood perfectly complements the villa's design as a true retreat, remaining out of sight until you are almost upon its gates. The entrance at the lower end of the lot opens to a long, winding driveway, elegantly lined on one side by a charming stone wall crafted from indigenous materials collected on the land, and on the other by vibrant native plants.

Built in 2007 as a personal haven by its discerning owners, Morning Star Manor is an impressive construction that masterfully incorporates traditional West Indian architectural elements with contemporary lines. It stands as a solid, resilient home, thoughtfully designed for the tropical climate of Nevis. Every detail has been meticulously considered, from the inviting Porte Cochere at the end of the drive to the practical, single-level accommodation throughout the main house, ensuring effortless living. The generously proportioned, well-ventilated rooms, equipped with air-conditioned bedrooms and ceiling fans, provide consistent comfort and a refreshing ambiance, benefiting from the cooling breezes prevalent at this elevation.

Elegant Interiors and Versatile Living Spaces

Step inside Morning Star Manor through its grand double entrance doors, which open into a welcoming foyer that flows seamlessly into a remarkably spacious living area. This expansive zone extends effortlessly into a screened outdoor space, blurring the lines between indoor comfort and Caribbean charm. The living room, crowned with tall cathedral ceilings, is bathed in natural light and enjoys superb cross-ventilation from multiple windows.

Off the main living area, the fully equipped gourmet kitchen is a culinary delight, featuring abundant built-in cabinetry and a central island perfect for casual dining or entertaining. A separate laundry room is conveniently located immediately off the kitchen. The villa's thoughtful layout divides the sleeping quarters into two distinct wings, housing four generous ensuite bedrooms, each connected by wide, airy corridors. All bedrooms are appointed with individual air conditioning units, ceiling fans, large closets, and spacious, private bathrooms. Two beautifully built-in bookshelves elegantly embellish the hallways, adding a touch of bespoke character. For enhanced convenience and security, the house is equipped with an intercom system connecting the bedrooms to the kitchen, as well as a security system with concealed wiring.

Adding to the property's remarkable versatility, a self-contained studio is situated on the ground floor. This comfortable annex includes its own galley kitchen and bathroom, making it an ideal private space for a live-in staff member, a children's nanny, or a dedicated caregiver, offering independence while remaining part of the main property. In total, the manor boasts 5 bedrooms and 5.5 bathrooms, providing ample accommodation.

Enchanting Outdoors and Unrestricted Potential

The exterior of Morning Star Manor is just as captivating as its interior. The South-West facing side of the house features one long, inviting screened veranda, offering multiple access points from three of the main bedrooms, the kitchen, and the living room. A section of this veranda thoughtfully extends outwards, presenting the most breathtaking, unobstructed views over the gently sloping landscape, the pristine shoreline, and the endless Caribbean Sea – a perfect setting for relaxing, dining, or simply soaking in the idyllic surroundings.

The property sits on a generous 2.5+ acres of land, with a total property size of 4,500 Sq. Ft. under roof plus a garage. The low-maintenance garden is designed to harmonize with the natural environment; decorative walls have been skillfully created using stones collected directly from the land, while ornamental tropical plants introduce vibrant colors and visual interest. A sprawling lawn surrounds the villa, featuring a large flat area that is ideal for the future addition of a swimming pool, offering immense potential to further enhance the outdoor leisure experience. With no restrictions on the title, the substantial size of the land allows for a multitude of future projects, from farming activities to additional accommodation, ensuring the options for customization and expansion are truly endless.
