Description:

An agriturismo and wine estate is for sale with an annexe, large vineyard and land overlooking Lake Trasimeno in Castiglione del Lago, Perugia. Well known for its archaeological treasures, ancient battle with Roman soldiers and site for artistic inspiration, the region around Lake Trasimeno now occupies the famous Perugia Wine Trail. This property takes full advantage of its premium location managing a farmer's market shop and large cellar on the ground floor of a two story villa that also accommodates four holiday lets, each with independent entrance. Adjacent to the villa is a one level, fully equipped residential annexe and large warehouse used for storage of agricultural machinery. A well-kept garden surrounds the buildings, and 13 hectares / 32 acres of additional land are dedicated to the DOC vineyard that grows Merlot, Sangiovese, and Syrah among other grape varieties. The property is ideal for those dreaming of living in a much loved area of Italy producing good wine and managing a small holiday destination.
