Description:

Authentic 124-hectare estate featuring a 1500s manor villa paired with rustic style farmhouses, a wine making facility, for sale near Florence. Set in a charming landscape in the heart of Tuscany, in the picturesque hills of Chianti, just a short distance from Florence, the estate spans 124 hectares and boasts a centuries-old agricultural tradition, focused on certified organic cultivation of high-quality grape varieties and olive groves. The main residence is a 16th-century villa of 600 square meters, embodying the elegance of Tuscan classicism, with refined, spacious living areas and five bedrooms. Enhancing the complex, there are two recently renovated former farmhouses and a barn, which house eight guest apartments of different sizes, totaling twenty bedrooms. Each space is a tribute to traditional Tuscan rustic style, with wooden beam ceilings and terracotta floors that create a warm and authentic atmosphere. Currently under renovation, a third farmhouse of 780 square meters located at 700 meters from the manor villa, offers further development potential, ideal for creating an exclusive villa or for the conversion into agritourism apartments or vacation homes, thereby increasing the estate's hospitality capacity. The vineyard spans 28 hectares and is planted with indigenous varieties such as Sangiovese, Canaiolo, Cilieggiolo, Colorino, Trebbiano, as well as international varieties like Cabernet and Merlot, producing wines of exceptional quality, including Chianti Colli Fiorentini DOCG, IGT Toscana SuperTuscans, and Vinsanto DOC. Complementing the wine production, 26 hectares of olive groves complete the picture of this outstanding estate. The winery, an imposing space of some 1400 square meters, is fully equipped for winemaking, reinforcing the value of this property as one of the most prestigious in the region. A unique opportunity for those who wish to own a piece of Tuscan paradise, rich in history and tradition, with great potential for future development.
