Description:

Urban land for sale in Elche, located between Altabix and Vía Parque. The estate has a total of 10,500 m², completely enclosed by a wall, in addition to another 2,500 m² located on the other side of the road from the Vía Parque.

Within the plot there is a house of 140 m² that offers the possibility of being restored. The area, in full expansion, is planned within the future urban plan E-48, which makes it a highly promising investment.

Its location is strategic, just a few metres from the city and surrounded by all the necessary services, in an environment with unstoppable urban growth.

An ideal opportunity for investors, developers or construction companies looking to develop projects in a privileged enclave with enormous potential for revaluation.
