In the heart of Languedoc, just 10 km from Limoux, a rare 36 hectares wine estate including 27 hectares of vines. Approximately 9 hectares are AOP Malepere, the rest IGP.

Environmentally friendly practices (plant cover, biodiversity preservation, borehole irrigation) ensure sustainable viticulture.

Vinification is currently carried out in a cooperative winery.

The farm is surrounded by private woods, offering peace, privacy, and ecological richness.

A private lake completes this exceptional setting, ideal for relaxation, recreational fishing, or the installation of an irrigation system.

The department of Aude is in the Languedoc-Roussillon region located in the south of France. It is surrounded by the Pyrenees-Orientales, Ariege, Tarn and Herault departments.

French property buyers look in this region due to its numerous and varied landscapes as well as the rich cultural heritage, Aude has become an ever popular destination recently due to the gastronomy of the region, as well as its many festivals and dramatic scenery.

Carcassonne is the cultural heart of the Aude department, and all through the region you will find lovely properties either to live in or to use as holiday homes. Aude is an agricultural area dominated by wine-growing in the east and the climate is that of the Mediterranean so summers are hot and dry and winters are mild and humid.

It is the perfect location if you are looking for a quiet life and to be in harmony with your surroundings.
