Description:

If you are looking for a project with potential, this is the ideal opportunity for you!

We present you this two-storey stone villa for reconstruction, set in a plot of 697m², located in the picturesque and quiet area of Figueiras de Cima, in the municipality of Lousada.

With a solid structure and typical design of the region, this property offers the rustic charm of stone, perfect for those who want to recover a villa with character and authenticity. The house is spread over two floors, allowing an excellent reorganization of spaces, adaptable to different lifestyles whether for own residence, holiday home or tourist investment.

The property is surrounded by a generous area of land, with enough space for a garden, leisure area, swimming pool or even cultivation, benefiting from excellent sun exposure and a calm and green surrounding environment.

Location and Surroundings

Located in a very quiet residential and rural area, this property combines proximity to essential services with the quiet of the countryside. Figueiras de Cima is just a few minutes from the centre of Lousada, with good access to the main roads, including the A11 and A42, which allows for a quick connection to cities such as Porto, Penafiel and Guimarães.

The region is known for its quality of life, natural landscapes, and welcoming community. Ideal for those who value tranquility, but without giving up urban convenience.

This villa is perfect for primary or secondary residence, rural tourism project or local accommodation.

The property is rented.

Don't miss this opportunity to give new life to a villa with history, in a growing place with high potential!

Schedule your visit now and start projecting your future in this unique space!
