Description:

Ideally located between Argentan and the renowned Haras National du Pin (National Stud Farm of Le Pin), this former restaurant offers significant commercial and residential potential in a peaceful, green setting.

The property comprises two spacious dining rooms, a large professional kitchen perfectly suited for a restaurant or hospitality business, and a vast room of approximately 180 m2 offering potential for a variety of projects (banquets, receptions, events, a gym, co-working, etc.).

Above, there is the possibility of creating two independent apartments, providing comfortable living space for the current owners.

The property benefits from excellent amenities and a strategic location near a busy road linking Argentan to Haras du Pin, an iconic destination for equestrian tourism in Normandy.

A rare property with strong potential, ideal for a restaurant, accommodation, or conversion project (residential, commercial, etc.).

The department of Orne, in Lower Normandy is bordered by the other two departments in the region, Manche and Calvados. It is located in the south of the region bordering with Mayenne, Sarthe, Eure et Loir and Eure. It is the only Normandy department without a coastline.

Orne's history was built through war, destruction and chaos but also through prosperity so don't worry it is a calm and peaceful place to live and visit now! It has rolling countryside, open meadows and boasts some of the best weekly markets in France.

Nowadays you can still see vestiges from all the troubled periods, as well as modern architecture that followed WWII. Nice property in the area is easy to find and reasonably priced.
