Why Casco Viejo?

- * One of the fastest-growing economies in Latin America
- * Low property taxes and low transactional costs to buy
- * Home to over 140 regional offices of multinational companies
- * Stable economy, which increased significantly by 7.3% last year
- * Picturesque peninsula overlooking the Pacific Ocean, minutes from Panama City's downtown
- * The most popular and iconic tourist destination in Panama City

La Central is set within the historic Santa Ana neighbourhood, just steps from Casco Viejo, Panama City's UNESCO World Heritage district and cultural heart. Once the city's original downtown, Casco has evolved into one of Latin America's most distinctive urban quarters—where colonial architecture, cobblestone streets, and vibrant plazas meet a thriving scene of restaurants, galleries, cafes, and boutique hotels.

The one-hectare Gran Central site occupies a full city block bordered by Avenida Central, Calle 17, Avenida B, and Calle Colon, directly across from the bustling Mercado San Felipe de Neri. This prime location places residents at the intersection of Casco's heritage and the city's ongoing transformation—a setting that is both authentically historic and dynamically modern.

Residents enjoy the best of both worlds: the atmosphere and charm of Casco Viejo, paired with the convenience and connectivity of a central Panama City address. The Financial District, Panama Canal, and Tocumen International Airport are all within easy reach, making Gran Central a rare opportunity to live amid history while remaining connected to the capital's modern pulse
