Step into the vibrant lifestyle of Las Catalinas, Costa Rica, with 25 Paseo Del Mar—an iconic 4-bedroom, 3-bathroom beachfront villa that blends timeless Mediterranean charm with modern luxury. Located directly on Playa Danta, one of the most picturesque beaches on the Guanacaste coast, this 3,160-square-foot home sits in the heart of a car-free, master-planned beach town that celebrates walkability, community, and nature.

This elegant residence captures the essence of pura vida living. Inside, the open-concept kitchen and dining area offers a warm, welcoming atmosphere with a large island, stainless steel appliances, and custom cabinetry with glass accents. The adjoining dining area is bright and playful, centered around a custom blue-and-white tiled table perfect for lively gatherings and everyday meals.

The villa offers four well-appointed bedrooms designed for privacy and flexibility. On the main floor, two spacious guest rooms—one with two king beds and another with a queen—share a full bathroom, ideal for family and guests. Upstairs, a cozy bunk room includes a custom queen and twin layout with its own bathroom, while the luxurious primary suite features a king bed, ensuite bathroom, and tranquil views, offering a restful retreat after sun-soaked beach days.

One of the standout features is the private rooftop terrace—your personal oasis above it all. Lush tropical greenery, lounge seating, a dining area, and partial ocean views create the perfect setting for morning coffee, sunset cocktails, or relaxing under the stars.
