Description:

Easily accessible on foot via the local footpath starting from the Bourrinquets neighbourhood, this beautiful barn will delight nature lovers seeking tranquility in an exceptional and unspoiled setting. Water is readily available, and the view overlooking the Bourrinquets neighbourhood is remarkable, with the Beost municipal forest and the Aubisque mountains as a backdrop.

This project has great potential, with a sound and solid foundation (perfectly watertight steel roof, frame and walls in good condition) in a sought-after, protected area of the Val d'Azun, prized for its peace and quiet.

The land area will be determined according to the project's requirements.

"From tool to dwelling, there is only one step. From the heart, a few stones and a roof."

Subject to mountain law.

The department of Hautes-Pyrenees is the southern-most department of the Midi Pyrenees region, its capital being the beautiful town of Tarbes. The department has a very interesting geography as two small sections belonging geographically to Aquitaine are administratively part of the Hautes-Pyrenees.

The department is split into two very different landscapes: mountains to the south covering half of the department, valleys to the north where the majority of the towns and villages are.

The economy of the department is mainly agricultural and tourism. Inside Midi Pyrenees, smaller areas have traditional names such as the Comminges (east of Toulouse) or the famous Gascony.

Hautes-Pyrenees is a very nice area to settle and one area to look out for (not very well known) is the Baronnies, a set of 30 villages which decided to preserve their rural traditions. An unspoilt area, they represent the rural idyll for anybody in search for absolute peace, authenticity and rest.
