Portimão is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the Algarve, located on the southern coast of Portugal. It is the second largest municipality in the region in terms of both area and population.

The municipality borders Monchique to the north, Silves to the east and Lagos to the west. Its landscape is characterised by golden sandy beaches, striking cliffs and an inland area defined by rolling hills and valleys.

Among its most famous beaches is Praia da Rocha, renowned for its vast stretch of sand and impressive rock formations. Other highly sought-after beaches include Praia do Vau, Praia dos Três Irmãos and Praia do Alvor.

The cliffs along the coastline provide excellent opportunities for walking and offer stunning panoramic views over the Atlantic Ocean.

Tourism is one of the main drivers of the local economy, attracting visitors throughout the year. Key attractions include the Fortaleza de Santa Catarina, which offers privileged views over the coastline and the River Arade, and the Museu de Portimão, which showcases the regions maritime and canning heritage.

The Marina de Portimão is also a significant landmark, providing facilities for leisure boats as well as a variety of waterfront restaurants, bars and shops. - REF: AB023 AQ
