Description:

Located in .

Completely renovated and refurbished, this stunning five-bedroom home is conveniently located with private access to Gibbs Beach, making it one of our must-see villas in Barbados. A playground for the rich and famous, Barbados is an ideal gateway for visitors pursuing sun, fine dining and high-end shopping, and of course its beaches are among the best in the world.

Boasting an extensive terrace surrounded by lush tropical vegetation, you will have no problem finding the perfect spot to relax on a lounge chair, and if you need a little extra shade, head under one of the sun umbrellas. The in-ground pool sits in the center of the terrace and is perfect for cooling off after a little sunbathing. Enjoy an alfresco meal out in the gazebo, it's located just off of the terrace and is furnished with a large dining table. If you're looking to enjoy a bit of downtime indoors, the villa also boasts a large media room equipped with surround sound, a plasma TV and video games.

The interior of the spacious two-level villa home has been beautifully renovated, featuring coral-stone walls, marble flooring, high-end furnishings and local Caribbean artwork. The living room leads out to the terrace and offers elegant sofas and armchairs as well as tasteful home accents. Bright and modern, the fully equipped kitchen boasts custom-designed cabinets, a dining table with seating for 10 and is fully air-conditioned.

A maximum of 10 guests can stay in this villa's five bedrooms; four are found in the main house while the remaining suite is located in a separate cottage. The main home's bedrooms are located on the upper level and three include private balconies with pool, garden and sea views. All bedrooms offer a private en-suite bathroom and air conditioning.

Just steps away, the white sands of Gibbs Beach can be accessed from a private gate on the property. It's a perfect spot to while away a day relaxing on one of the beach area's comfy lounge chairs watching the waves.
