Bellamonte is an idyllic mountain fraction of the municipality of Predazzo in the heart of Val di Fiemme in Trentino-Alto Adige. Situated at an altitude of around 1,370 meters, the village boasts a sunny, panoramic location with unobstructed views of the impressive peaks of the Dolomites, a UNESCO World

Heritage Site.

The surrounding area is characterized by extensive alpine meadows, dense forests and an intact alpine landscape - an ideal environment for nature lovers, those seeking peace and quiet and sports enthusiasts. There are numerous hiking and cycling trails right on the doorstep, as well as perfectly groomed cross-country ski trails in winter. The nearby Alpe Lusia ski area offers a variety of slopes and modern lifts and can be reached in just a few minutes.

The town center of Predazzo with its wide range of shops, restaurants, schools and medical care is just a few minutes' drive away and guarantees an excellent infrastructure. At the same time, Bellamonte enjoys a pleasantly quiet, family-friendly atmosphere with a high recreational value.

There are good transport links: the valleys of the Fiemme Valley provide easy access to the cities of Bolzano and Trento as well as the highway connections to northern Italy and Austria.

Bellamonte thus combines natural living quality, sporting variety and excellent accessibility - an attractive location for owner-occupiers as well as for investors in the Alpine real estate market.
