Description:

An authentic Portuguese dream home in Santiago da Guarda

Nestled among the hills of Central Portugal, this unique, authentic stone farmhouse is a place where time seems to slow down. The original natural stone walls tell the story of a rich past, while the house has been fully renovated and is ready to move into for a new chapter.

Inside, a welcoming living room with wood-burning stove awaits — perfect for cosy evenings during the Portuguese winter. The characterful country kitchen with its striking blue cabinets and wooden bar has everything you need. The bedrooms are spacious and bright, with that typical Portuguese feeling of peace and space.

Outside, a world of its own unfolds. Take in the breathtaking panoramic views over the Portuguese hills, relax under the veranda, or cool off at the swimming pool. Right beside the pool you'll find a charming poolhouse — the perfect spot for outdoor dining and entertaining — as well as a separate building with its own bathroom, so you never have to go inside for convenience. The garden is beautifully maintained and gives the whole property a lush, green character.

The absolute showpiece of this property are the two outbuildings — affectionately known as the "hobbit or druid cottages." With their unique architecture, each equipped with its own kitchenette and bathroom, they are perfect as accommodation for friends or family coming to stay. They give this property something truly magical and utterly unforgettable.

The total plot of 7,349 m² — including the main house, the outbuildings and all outdoor spaces — offers space, privacy and freedom. With a garage and carport for up to 3 vehicles and sunshine from all directions, this property is truly complete.

Important to note: an application has been submitted to asphalt the road leading to the house.
